

The Ergo Aviation Snip was designed with a reduced handle span, providing lower level of muscle effort required while cutting tough materials. This tool is traditionally used for cutting aluminum, vinyl siding, screening, cardboard, leather, copper and 18 to 22-Gauge sheet metal. The snip's serrated cutting edge prevent materials from slipping during use and the slip-resistant, bi-material cushion grip ensures a firm, comfortable grip.

Add to Wishlist

Features

15% less muscle exertion*, easier cutting

More cuts*, less effort

Serrated blade, clean finish

U.S. ergonomic performance certification

Improved external latch design*

Flush hardware allows for smooth cuts